Explanation

Walking in the Reign focuses on meeting the needs of the people in Balan, Haiti in the areas of food, shelter, clothing, and education. We are a faith based ministry with the primary focus on meeting the spiritual needs. We have a church in Balan, Haiti along with a school where we serve over 432 children that are enrolled in our school from grades pre-school through 12th grade. We have a feeding program that feeds the children in our school a meal 5 days a week. We also have a water program that provides our students with fresh drinking water. Our homes for Haiti program allows donors to build a home for families in Balan. We have built around 11 homes so far in this program. Our goals for the future include a discipleship program for young men. See Schedule O In April 2015 we purchased a new property in Wichita, KS where we intended to move our ministry including our program to young mothers and their children described in 2. This progaram was closed in December 2015 before moving to this facility.
